

Reflexive Pronouns

Learn!

- She often asks herself why she left London.
- The members argued amongst themselves for an hour and never reached an agreement.
- Peter pinched himself with the needle.
- I'm still angry with myself.
- We will never forgive ourselves for such a stupid mistake.
- History usually repeats itself.

Work it out!

1 Underline the correct options to complete the rules.

- a. We use reflexive pronouns (myself, himself, etc.) to talk about actions where the subject and the object are the same / different.
- b. Singular reflexive pronouns end in self / selves.
- c. Plural reflexive pronouns end in self / selves.

Use!

1 Complete the sentences with the correct pronouns.

- a. He accidentally cut _____ while he was chopping the vegetables.
- b. _____ bought herself a present.
- c. _____ injured themselves during the tennis match.
- d. We enjoyed _____ at the concert.
- e. The dog is scratching _____ – it must have fleas!
- f. I did it _____.
- g. She hurt _____ when she fell off the horse.
- h. The Eskimos built an igloo to protect _____ from the freezing cold.
- i. _____ made ourselves a delicious pizza for supper.
- j. James decided to buy _____ a new computer.