

Relative adverbs

Adverbs are words that modify verbs. Sometimes adverbs are clauses introduced by a relative adverb (where, when, why).

July is the month when I go on vacation.

This is the room where I study.

That's the reason why he can't swim.

Task 1: Complete these sentences using when, where or why.

1. The street _____ we lived is dirty now.
2. The reason _____ I can't go is because I'm sick.
3. I'll never forget the day _____ I saw him.
4. That was the year _____ we met.
5. The gym _____ we do exercise is really big.
6. Do you know the reason _____ she is so upset?
7. The day _____ you saw me I was feeling sick.
8. The library is a place _____ you can borrow books.
9. That is the house _____ we used to live.
10. This is the reason _____ I never call her.